Core Competence
Taking ePaper module product development, design, production and sales as the solely business.
Totally 4 ePaper manufacturing bases in China and Vietnam to provide efficient industrial chain support for global customers.

Digital smart factory
The factory inputs the concept of 5.0 digital smart factory, fully introduces the manufacturing execution information system, carries out intelligent transformation of the production line, and deeply integrates information technology with production and manufacturing.

ePaper is a type of display that coats electronic ink on a layer of plastic film and can be applied to thin film transistor (TFT/PET/FPC and other materials) circuits. It is controlled by a driver IC to form pixel graphics.
